

Ernest Holmes quote: LOVE IS THE CENTRAL FLAME OF THE UNIVERSE, NAY, THE VERY FIRE ITSELF. SOM Textbook - 478:3

AFFIRMATIVE PRAYER:

In perfect peace, I recognize the total Love of the Universe. I allow myself to be immersed in It. It is me, I am It. I can never be separated from It. In this place of perfect unconditional Love I remind myself that I am to love myself in the same way that my Creator loves me. What an awesome thought. I am to love myself in the same way that my creator loves me! In this perfect place, realizing the Truth in which I was created, I know that all things are possible. I now know that all the good that I am willing to accept is mine now by Divine right. I open up my arms, I open up my heart in cheerful expectation for all the good the universe has to offer. I am in perfect balance in every aspect of my life! My cups are overflowing! The expected AND the unexpected happens! My seemingly impossible good now comes to pass!

In total gratitude knowing that Spirit always says yes, I release this affirmative prayer. It is done!
