

Treatment for Perfect Employment

God is Love. God is Peace, Harmony and Wholeness. God is the pure and perfect substance from which all else unfolds.

I am love in action. I am peace in action. I am the place where life unfolds, recognizes itself and rejoices.

I claim for myself today the position that is already planned for me in Divine Mind. I know the perfect position for me exists and I know that I deserve to have it. I lay claim to it now by resonating with the feelings I have when I am engaged in this perfect work. I resonate to interesting, challenging projects. I resonate to co-workers and clients who are supportive and demand the best of me. I resonate to a level of compensation that is more than adequate to meet ALL my needs. I resonate to joyous fulfillment, excitement and expectancy as I greet each new day.

I am drawing this position to me like a magnet. Anything unlike my fulfillment is dismissed and banished from my thoughts now. I know that life is for me, nothing is against me and I deserve to have work that I enjoy and that prospers me.

The perfect position is mine now and I give great thanks for it. With utter faith in this creative process and with a light heart, I release these words. I release them back to the Source of my being, which birthed this desire within me.

And So It Is.

Diana Starke